Shrinking role of Tea Board

3154. SHRIMATI VEENA VERMA:

SHRI SUSHILKUMAR SAMBHAJIRAO SHINDE:

Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether with the advent of liberalisation of economy the Tea Board is losing its significance with its area of operation undergoing drastic change; and

(b) if so, the details in this regard indicating the figures of tea production, domestic consumption and exports during 1992-93, 1993-94 and 1994-95 (estimated) and the comparative price trends in the domestic and international market?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) and (b) Role and functions of the Tea Board as defined in the Tea Act, are oriented towards development of tea industry in India including enhandement of production/productivity, quality improvement and promotion of marketing & exports. These primary objectives of the Tea Board continue to hold good in the liberalised trade regime initiated by the Govt. However, required information has been indicated in the enclosed statement.
